

Human Services (HS)

Editor's Corner

Cynthia Malvin, Media Specialist

It has been a hot summer bursting with an enhanced delivery of services to the public by San Bernardino County Human Services.

Children's Network has dedicated itself to fatherhood in new and exciting ways, while the Transitional Assistance Department offers hi-tech services in its new Colton office.

Veteran's Affairs takes strides with the introduction of new leadership and Human Services Administration completes a first-time safety pilot program with Children and Family Services.

You can read about these stories and much more in this issue of the HS Connection.

